Touro University Graduate School of Education
Master of Arts in Education Degree with Emphasis in Urban Education

Preparing Caring Professionals to Serve, to Lead, to Teach.

- Examine the needs of school districts that face the challenges of achievement gaps, inadequate resources, poverty, language, and diverse cultures.
- Focus upon effective pedagogies from the real world context of teaching in multicultural school systems.
- Develop a community of practice that includes preparation for development from Scholar ► Action Researcher ► Leader.
- Become a leader who employs transformative pedagogy to build sustainable methods for equitable education.
- Plan of study engenders practices that promote social justice and equity.
- All project work focuses on engaging and meeting the learning needs of at-risk urban youth.
- Credential completion option allows teachers with valid CA teaching credentials to transfer up to 12 credits.

Contact:
Pamela Redmond, Ed.D.
Chair of Graduate Studies
pamela.redmond@tu.edu
707-638-5971

Credential Completion Option
May be completed in One Year*

9 Units from Core Urban Education Courses
EDU 700: Educational Equity for All Students
EDU 714: Identifying and Working with At-Risk Students
EDU 717: Cultural Issues and Competence in Educational Pedagogy
EDU 782: Cultivating Community: Advocacy in Urban Leadership

9 Units of Research
EDU 710: Introduction to Research for Educators
EDU 716: Reading/Writing Educational Literature
EDU 795: Master’s Thesis/Project Seminar

Regional School District Programs
- Convenient Local Courses in Fall/Spring Summer Classes on Mare Island
- Flexible schedule including some online work
- Local Facilitator to support district Cohorts
- Cohort model - Strong support network
- Personal attention
- Highly qualified faculty with classroom teaching experience
- Integrated curriculum

* Valid CA Credential Required. 12 credential program units are accepted toward the 30 unit Master’s degree.

Touro University Graduate School of Education
Master of Arts in Education Degree with Emphasis in Urban Education

TOURO UNIVERSITY
1310 Club Drive - Vallejo, CA 94592

Promoting social justice and serving the community and larger society through the preparation and continuous support of educators who are able to meet the needs of a constantly changing, challenging, and diverse student population.