

HEALTH EQUITY & CRIMINAL JUSTICE

JOIN US at a lecture and reception to launch the 3rd annual Social Justice Lecture Series. This year's 6-part speaker series focuses on the public health impacts of incarceration on individuals, families, and communities.

August 28, 2017 . 5 PM - 7 PM
Touro University California, Lander Hall B
Reception immediately following.

SOCIAL JUSTICE IN PUBLIC HEALTH LECTURE SERIES

Reuben Miller, PhD

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Students in public health, medicine, pharmacy and education programs.
*CEUs available through the National Board of Public Health Examiners:
<https://portal.nbphe.org/recert/tracking/resultCEcreditsPublic.cfm>*
- Community members interested in social justice as it relates to the health impacts of incarceration and the criminal justice system (teachers, health professionals, religious and organizational leaders, parents, etc.)

Fania Davis, JD, PhD

Dr. Janet Mohle-Boetani

■ SESSION 1: AUG. 28

THE STATE OF OUR JUSTICE SYSTEM & HEALTH

Reuben Miller, PhD
University of Michigan, Population Studies
Reception immediately following

■ SESSION 2: SEPT. 11

BREAKING THE SCHOOL TO PRISON PIPELINE: INVESTING IN OUR YOUTH
Fania Davis, JD, PhD

Director of Restorative Justice, Oakland
Reception immediately following

■ SESSION 3: SEPT. 25

THE LIFE COURSE PERSPECTIVE OF THE INCARCERATED
SPEAKER PANEL:

Dr. Janet Mohle-Boetani, California Correctional Health Care Services
Dr. Elena Tootel, San Quentin

■ SESSION 4: OCT. 9

INCARCERATION, RE-ENTRY & RECIDIVISM: PREVENTION/SOLUTIONS
SPEAKER PANEL:

Obi Anthony, Founder and President of Exonerated Nation
Dr. Ann Finkelstein, La Clínica de la Raza

■ SESSION 5: OCT. 23

RE-ENTRY & HEALTH PANEL (MENTAL HEALTH/PTSD)
SPEAKER PANEL:

Ruben Vang, Center for Positive Change Supervisor
Susan Champion, Attorney with the Three Strikes Project
Dr. Saki Cabrera, Solano Community College

■ SESSION 6: NOV. 13

ADDRESSING THE PRISON EPIDEMIC: WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE?
Matthew Pillischer, Film Director, "Broken on all Sides"

Obi Anthony

Matthew Pillischer

Touro University California, Lander Hall, Lecture Hall B, 5 - 7 PM. Reception immediately following in Farragut Ballroom, 7 - 8 PM. Registration is not required. This series is free and open to the public.