

'Of all the forms of inequality, injustice in health care is the most shocking and inhumane.' Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Social Justice in Public Health Seminar Series 2016:

A 6-part speaker series exploring connections between Social Justice and Public Health in poverty, housing, education, the environment and incarceration.

Touro University California Public Health Program

Lander Hall, Lecture Hall A, 4 PM – 6 PM, Free to the community

Thursday, September 1: Wealth as a Determinant of Health

Speaker: Anthony Iton, MD, JD, MPH

Senior Vice President of Healthy Communities,
The California Endowment

Dr. Iton has been published in numerous public health and medical publications and is a noted public health lecturer and keynote speaker at conferences across the nation. He earned his B.S. in Neurophysiology, with honors, from McGill University, in Montreal, Quebec, his J.D. at the University of California, Berkeley's Boalt Hall School of Law, and his medical degree from Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine. An innovative leader in the field of Public Health, Dr. Iton has spent much of his career involved with both policies and practice designed to eliminate disparities in health care in low-income communities.

- Touro students may take this course for credit or may attend any session of interest.
- Members of the community are welcome to participate in any or all of the sessions.

Pre-registration per lecture is required.

Upcoming sessions: 9/15, 9/29, 10/13, 10/27, 11/10

To Register:

Touro students - <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/5PRLGHM>

Community members - email publichealth@tu.edu

For more information, please email publichealth@tu.edu or call 707-638-5838.

Touro University Public Health Program

1310 Club Drive, Mare Island, Vallejo, CA 94592