

TOURO UNIVERSITY
CALIFORNIA

PUBLIC HEALTH PROGRAM

BE A CHANGE AGENT FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE.

4th Annual Social Justice in Public Health Lecture Series: Immigration & Public Health

The Impact of Immigration

on Mental Health
Monday, 10/22
Lander Hall,
Lecture Hall A,
5 – 7 pm

1557 Azuar Drive, Vallejo, CA 94592

Renae Badruzzaman, MPH, is the Program Manager for Health Equity Investments at the Bay Area Regional Health Inequities Initiative. She brings over 8 years of health and human services experience advocating systems change. She received MPH from the University of Illinois at Chicago School of Public Health, Community Health Sciences Division.

Laura Lopez immigrated to the US from Peru at the age of 18 and has experienced the challenges and discrimination faced by low-wage and immigrant workers. She received the Community Justice Award presented by Centro Legal de la Raza, the Barbara Lee Special Congressional Recognition for Community Justice and was chosen as one of the top Community Health Leaders in the country by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation. Laura currently works at Highland Hospital as a Family Specialist in the Pediatrics Department.

Lectures are free & open to the public.
Registration for non-Touro Affiliated attendees required at this link:

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/tuc-social-justice-in-public-health-speakers-series-2018-tickets-37284603252>