

PUBLIC HEALTH PROGRAM

Required for All MPH Students: Cultural Diversity, Health Disparities, and Public Health - TRAIN.org

Effective Fall 2016, the web-based training course on Cultural Diversity, Health Disparities, and Public Health, offered through Train.org, is a course prerequisite for the Field Study (PH 600-1 & 2). A primary aim of this course is to provide public health professionals with a broad overview of cultural diversity issues with a focus on race/ethnicity and gender. Health disparities, a major public health problem of interest, is discussed using cultural diversity as the conceptual framework for thinking about the role of the public health community and health policy solutions for addressing these issues.

To satisfy this course prerequisite, follow the steps below:

- 1) Visit the Cultural Diversity, Health Disparities, and Public Health webpage to take the course.
- 2) Log in information required for the training registration includes:
  - Your first/last name
  - Position Title
  - Telephone
  - Email
  - Organization Name
  - Department/Division
  - Address

Enter "Student" for Position Title. If you do not wish to provide your personal address or phone number please enter the address and phone number of the Program (see below)

Touro University California
Public Health Program
1310 Club Drive
Vallejo, CA 94592
USA
707/638-5838

- Once you have created your login and are logged in, type "cultural diversity" in the box to "Search by keyword or Course ID."
- A list of courses will appear. Click the link for "Cultural Diversity, Health Disparities and Public Health" sponsored/offered by South Central Public Health Partnership.
- Click the Registration tab.
- If you are prompted to select course credit type, click the drop down menu and select "Certificate of Attendance" or "Certificate."
- Click the button to Go the Step 2 of Registration.
- Create an account for the South Central Public Health Partnership.
- Launch the course in the previous window.

3) Upon completing the exam, take a screen shot of the final page and email it to nemesia.kelly@tu.edu.